Statement from Stamm Travel

March 16, 2020

Over the past several days, Stamm Travel has been in communication with your schools concerning potential cancellation or postponement of field trips.

Stamm Travel has been working closely with our vendors (bus companies, hotels, venues, etc.) concerning financial penalties, rescheduling and refunding.

This is a new territory for all involved. In light of this, Stamm Travel estimates a timeline of approximately 30 days to determine a resolution concerning your trip due to the volume of cancellations both locally and nationally.

Stamm Travel will continue in close communication with your school. Please look to the school for updates as they become available. Patience is encouraged as this will take time to work the solution. In order for us to come up with a solution in the most timely manner, we encourage you to refrain from contacting us directly.

Stamm Travel understands that this is a trying time for all. We appreciated your patience and understanding as we work with your teachers and administrators. We will work together to come out stronger.
